No Immigrants to the South.

Southern senators are apt to spring a subject of especial interest to that section during the coming winter. They will inquire to know how it happens that immigrants are landed here from various parts of Europe practically in voiced to their destination in the far This, it is claimed, is the practice of the steamship companies at the practice and has been for a long time past.

It is claimed that this practice is op-ed to the immigration law, and it is likely that there will be an inquiry into the general subject of practices connected with the bringing of immigrants to this country. It is claimed that these immigrants arrive here not only practically ticketed for their destinations, but even the railroad over which they are to travel to the west is designated. All this, it is claimed, is directly in opposi-tion to the clearly defined laws relating to immigration. They have also dis-covered that the South is absolutely boycotted by the immigrants because the maps distributed among them have the portion of the United States south of Mason and Dixon's line, painted black.

"It is all black and unfit for the settlement of white immigrants," it is said the prospective immigrants are told. They are impressed with the idea that e south is laboring under such social conditions that any white man settling there will be obliged to associate with colored people and that he can never hope for the opportunities that are easily attained in the great northwest.

In the Folds of a Python.

Rudolph Fluegal, an animal keeper of the Cincinnati Zoological Gardens, in Cincinnati, had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon from being crushed to death in the folds of a huge python quartered in the snake cage. Finegal had gone into the cage to sweep it out, but neglected to take the usual precaution of throwing a blanket over the reptile, which is one of the largest in captivity.

While he was at work the immense snake attacked him from the rear, sinking its fangs into his back. The keeper's heavy coat protected him from serious lacerations, but he was panic-stricken as he felt the coi's of the long py-thon envelop his body and slowly begin to tighten.

Keeper Edward Coyne and three assistants rushed into the cage, and while the former beat the reptile over the head to make it release its hold on Fluegal, the latter exerted their strength to unwrap its coils about the keeper's body. They did not succeed until it had been beaten into insensibility. Fluegal was unconscious when rescued, and it was an hour before the physicians resusciated him. He is prostrated by the nervous shock due to fright.

Terrific Race With Death.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried — different doctors and several mediciaes out got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 56c.

The Case of Miss Irene Crosby Is One of Thousands of Cures Made by Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that menatruation is the balance wheel of a woman's life, and while no woman is entirely free from periodiesl suffering, it is not the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely.

Thousands of American women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs menstruation of its forces.

"Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a true friend to woman. It has been of great benefit to me, curing me of irregular and painful menstruation when everything else had falled, and I gladly recommend it to other suffering women.
